ORDERED that the January 24 Claimants Committee (“Committee”) shall have the right to (a) communicate directly with MACCO regarding any reports MACCO produced on behalf of the Debtor, with notice to Debtor’s counsel, (b) obtain copies of work papers and background materials used by MACCO in generating reports on behalf of the Debtor, with a copy of any such request being provided to Debtor’s counsel, and (c) make reasonable requests that MACCO perform additional analysis or create additional reports on behalf of the Committee, subject to the Debtor’s right to seek relief if the Debtor believes any such request is not reasonable or necessary; it is further

ORDERED that nothing in this Order shall prohibit the Committee from filing an application to employ a separate financial advisor should it determine that it needs to do so in the future; and it is further

ORDERED that MACCO shall be compensated in accordance with the applicable procedures set forth in Bankruptcy Code Sections 330 and 331, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Bankruptcy Local Rules, the U.S. Trustee Guidelines and further orders of this Court for all services performed and expenses incurred on or after the Petition Date; provided, however, that MACCO shall not seek reimbursement from the Debtor's estate for any fees incurred in defending any of MACCO's fee applications in the Chapter 11 Case. For billing purposes, MACCO shall keep its time in one tenth (1/10) hour increments in accordance with the U.S. Trustee Guidelines. MACCO shall make a reasonable effort to comply with the U.S. Trustee's requests for information and additional disclosures, both in connection with the Application and any interim and final fee applications to be filed by MACCO in this Chapter 11 Case. (c) If, before the earlier of (i) the entry of an order confirming a chapter 11 plan in these cases (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal), and (ii) the entry of an order closing these chapter 11 cases, MACCO believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtors on account of the Debtors' indemnification, contribution and/or reimbursement obligations under the Engagement Letter (as modified by this Application), including without limitation the advancement of defense costs, MACCO must file an application therefore in this Court, and the Debtors may not pay any such amounts to MACCO before the entry of an order by this Court approving the payment. This subparagraph (c) is intended only to specify the period of time under which the Court shall have jurisdiction over any request for fees and expenses by MACCO for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement, and not a provision limiting the duration of the Debtors' obligation to indemnify MACCO. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by MACCO for indemnification, contribution or reimbursement; it is further

If no such party files an objection within 21 days of the Debtors filing such notice, the Proposed Additional Services and any underlying engagement agreement may be approved by the Court by further order without further notice or hearing; it is further

ORDERED that to the extent there is inconsistency between the terms of the Engagement Letter, the Application, McManigle Declaration and this Order, the terms of this Order shall govern; it is further ORDERED that MACCO will review its files periodically during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases to ensure that no conflicts or other disqualifying circumstances exist or arise.

If any new relevant facts or relationships are discovered or arise, MACCO will use reasonable efforts to identify such further developments and will promptly file a supplemental declaration, as required by FED. R. BANKR. P. 2014(a).

ORDERED that any indemnification claim is capped at the amount of MACCO's allowed fees; and it is further

ORDERED that MACCO shall be compensated in accordance with the procedures set forth in the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, this Order and any other applicable orders of this Court; and it is further
